Job Experience:

9-16 to Present, The Sheepfold
Orange, CA
Floater

Work as a substitute House Manager on an as needed basis and perform all duties of the House Manager, managing the house and working with the residents.

6-16 to 8-16, Frontier Ranch
Scotts Valley, CA
Summer Program Director

Oversee and lead morning and nighttime programs for 250 campers every day during the eight weeks of summer camp. Create schedules, plan programs, speak during programs and serve as host of programs. Manage and care for staff who rotate weekly in and out of programs. Interact with and care for all campers.

9-15 to 5-16, The Sheepfold
Orange, CA
Intern

As an intern I participated in many areas of The Sheepfold ministry. I received training to be a house manager which included leading daily bible studies, understanding and learning about government funding for the poor, money management, resource allocation, teaching and supporting parenting skills, providing spiritual care, and learning about basic needs of everyday life. In the homes, I worked alongside the house manager and worked directly with the women and children who are the residents. I also received training in The Sheepfold office, which included volunteer coordination and participation, ministry finances, donor relations, donation management, participating in different meetings including House Manager meetings and Board Meetings, and learning the basics of running a ministry.

Effective September 1, 2016 I have been hired as a Floater House Manager and will substitute in houses when the House Managers can't be there and will perform all House Manager duties.

3-15 to 5-16, Biola University
La Mirada, CA
AfterDark Chapel Team member

AfterDark is a student led and run chapel serving 600-800 students weekly during the school year at Biola University. As a member of the AfterDark chapel team I participated in weekly meetings spent planning each chapel, including selecting topics and speakers, setting up the chapel venue, working the technical aspects of the chapel and working during the chapel checking students in and greeting them and being part of the prayer team at the end of the chapel. During the time I served as a team member I also spoke in front of the chapel attendees, including introductions of speakers, prayers, and giving a short message.
